

Dasha Savchenko

Analyst

Ms. Dasha Savchenko is a member of Team Tenzer and joined George Smith Partners in 2021. Her responsibilities include underwriting financing structures, assembling investment memorandums, and maintaining client and capital provider relationships for the placement of debt and equity.

Prior to joining George Smith Partners, Dasha worked at Carr Properties, a DC-based private REIT, where she focused on ground-up development and asset management of over 6 million square-feet across various properties. Most notably, Dasha assisted in the development of 2 million square-feet of Class A office towers in DC and Boston (The Wilson & 1 Congress).

Prior to Carr Properties, Dasha worked at Duff & Phelps as a real estate valuation and advisory analyst, providing transaction underwriting and valuation support for acquisitions, portfolio and REIT valuations, financial reporting, appraisals, debt valuations, and site due diligence across all major commercial asset classes.

Dasha grew up in Colorado, where she developed her love for the outdoors. She earned a B.S. in Finance from Kogod School of Business at American University.
