

Shuvo Hussain

Vice President

Shuvo Hussain joined George Smith Partner's New York Office in late 2023. His experience includes raising capital, underwriting, asset management, and balance sheet/CMBS loan securitization.

Shuvo began his commercial real estate career with Avison Young, working as an analyst for two years in the firm's New York office underwriting and executing structured financings for the firm's clients. Next, he worked for Barings on core, construction, and bridge financings across all property types throughout the country. Then, he was an Assistant Vice President at Barclays, where he underwrote, and structured CMBS deals across all property types. Prior to joining GSP, he had rejoined Avison Young, working on single-tenant net lease transactions.

Currently, Shuvo is pursuing a part-time Masters in Real Estate (MSRED) at New York University's Schack Institute of Real Estate. For his undergraduate studies, he attended Harvard University (B.A., Class of 2015) and graduated with latin honors in his field of study, Economics. He also graduated summa cum laude from the Bronx High School of Science.

Shuvo lives and grew up in New York. He enjoys spending time playing chess, following the stock market, and taking spontaneous jogs in Central Park.
